NOVI, Mich.—With remodeling activity not slowing down any time soon, attendees to The Novi Home Show, January 25-27 at Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi can learn about renovations, repairs and discover the latest homestyle trends.

“Your home is a long-term investment and home renovations increase the value of your home, reduce the cost of maintenance and improve comfort and safety,” said Michael Stoskopf, CEO of the Homebuilders Association of Southeast Michigan. “A visit to The Novi Home Show is a fun, interesting way to protect your investment.”

According to the Leading Indicator of Remodeling Activity (LIRA) released by the Joint Center of Housing Studies of Harvard University, annual expenditures for residential improvements and repairs by homeowners is expected to grow to more than $350 billion nationally through the third quarter of 2019.

Home trends for 2019 include colorful grout between uniquely-shaped tiles, eco-friendly flooring in dramatic sizes—the larger the better, copper and brass accents, wallpapers and matte finishes. Attendees to The Novi Home Show can view these latest trends, get ideas, inspiration and resources from more than 200 exhibitors at the show.

The Inspiration Stage at The Novi Home Show features speakers from the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID)—Michigan Chapter and the National Association of Productivity and Organizing (NAPO)—Michigan Chapter, as well as other show exhibitors.
